

PACNY 2020 Awards Program - Extended Call for Nominations

The Preservation Association of Central New York (PACNY) invites you to nominate an outstanding project, exceptional individual, or worthy organization to be recognized at PACNY's 2020 Annual Awards Ceremony. All nominations will be reviewed by PACNY's Awards Committee and award winners will ultimately be approved by PACNY's Board of Directors. Due to COVID-19, the 2020 Awards will be presented during a virtual, online ceremony to be held on November 6, 2020 at 6 p.m. Further details will be announced soon.

For over 40 years, PACNY has played a critical role in the protection and stewardship of Central New York's historical resources. PACNY's Annual Awards bring recognition to owners, builders, artisans, designers, educators and activists that have demonstrated a high level of dedication to historic preservation. At the same time, the awards celebrate the success of preservation and its role in the economic, social, and cultural vitality of Central New York. Nominations will be considered for the following awards:

- The Jasena R. Foley Education Award is given to individuals or groups who educate, promote, engender or advocate a preservation ethic in CNY.
- The Pat Earle Award is given for a singular outstanding historic preservation project which benefits the community.
- The Harley J. McKee Award is given for excellence in the promotion and application of appropriate preservation technology and fine craftsmanship.
- The Paul Malo Award is given for projects that juxtapose old and new, demonstrating respect for our past while promoting our community's future.
- The Preservation Merit Award is given in recognition of exceptional achievement in historic preservation.

- Stewardship Awards are given to individuals, organizations, or civic agencies that have maintained exceptionally high standards of care for historic properties or landscapes.
- The Wilma T. Auer Award honors volunteers who have made particularly outstanding contributions to PACNY.
- The CNY Heritage Award is given to an individual, group or organization that honors, revives, and shares an important part of our Central New York heritage with the community.

To nominate a project, individual, or organization for an award from PACNY, please complete an Awards Nomination Form found on our website at <http://pacny.net/about-us/awards/> and provide all additional information requested in the Nomination Form.

Please submit your nomination via mail and/or email (preferred) to:

PACNY Awards Committee
c/o Preservation Association of Central New York, Inc.
930 James Street
Syracuse, NY 13202
email@pacny.net

All nomination materials must be received by 5:00pm on Friday, September 18, 2020. Awards will be announced on Monday, October 5, 2020.

We look forward to seeing you at our Awards Ceremony in November!